

Students Entering Grades 9-12

Summer 2023 Literacy Activities

Today, students are bombarded with different types of literacy that constantly changes. Media and technology literacy have exploded in the last few years and will continue to do so. Students need to work competently with consuming and producing information to be proficient with all kinds of literacy. To help our students become technology literacy proficient, our summer reading will emphasize investigating different types of communication.

This year's assignment has two parts. Students are asked to read a book of their choice and complete assignment one that goes along with it, as well as complete assignment two. Both pieces must be completed in their entirety to receive credit. *All completed assignments will be used as an ELA quiz grade for the first marking period.

Students needing audiobooks, may log into Learning Ally through Clever

Completed activities MUST be returned to your teacher by September 8, 2023.

Happy Summer

Summer Literacy for Students entering Grades 9-12

Assignment 1: Read a grade-level, appropriate book of your choice and complete one of the assignments below. (Suggestion Included)

If writing a handwritten letter (choice 1 & 2), the assignment must be front and back of a page. If the assignment is typed, front only, single spaced, 12-point Times New Roman with 1" margins.

If writing a new chapter or interview, (choices 3 & 4), a handwritten assignment must be front and back of a page. If the assignment is typed, two full pages, single spaced, 12-point Times New Roman with 1" margins.

CHOICES

- 1. Dear Author -- Write a letter to the author of your chosen book. Explain what you liked/disliked, ask any questions you have about the story/characters, explain what you would have changed if you were the author, and mention at least one thing you will always remember about this novel and why. You MUST use letter format.
- 2. Dear Diary -- Write a diary entry about a main event in the book from the main character's point of view. Include their feelings/thoughts and questions. You must use a diary format. You MUST use letter format.
- 3. New Chapter -- Write a new chapter for the book you read. Be sure to keep the voice and style of the author as you pen a new chapter.
- 4. Interview -- Interview a character from your book. The interview must have at least 7 open-ended questions. Do Not have yes or no responses.

Assignment 2:

Select two different selections that interest you from the following: poem, song, short story, blog, novel, photo, museum tour, TEDTalk or anything else literacy. (Selections Included)

Using the grid, provide basic information for your selection that you will use in your essay or video.

	Source One	Source Two
Bibliographic/Reference Information
Theme/Topic
Key Point(s)/Main Ideas
Author's/Authors' Point(s) of View
Application to My Life

Imagine you are speaking or writing to a friend or family member. They are the audience for your thoughts. You may choose to write an essay/letter, record an audio, or create a video that describes your selections, how they are related to a specific theme, and why they were of interest to you. You'll also include the most important points for each and describe the author's/authors' purpose(s). This section should include any basic information your audience would need to understand what key information was in your sources, and any context needed, such as other sources that reflect the theme.

Next, you will move from an informative focus to a persuasive one: what you learned and how these sources have impacted your life and or perspective (be sure to include examples from your life and those around you), why they should like or dislike the thematic sources, and what should be included to make the author's/authors' purposes and perspectives even stronger. Note that throughout this section, you should provide specific evidence from the sources for each point, justifying your thoughts with that evidence.

Finally, provide a conclusion that sums up your perspective of your sources (valuable, incomplete, boring, etc.) along with specific evidence from the sources and your life to justify your perspective.
